Kentucky's Corn.

That the Southeast is growing to be the most important corn-growing section of the country is emphasized by the December number of the "Crop Reporter," issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. It shows by Government statistics that the nine Southern States east of the Mississippi River and south of the Potomac produced in the year 1912 a crop of corn aggregating 505,135,000 bushels, worth approximately $317,740,000 at the price received by the farmers in that section. The 1912 crop shows an increase of 162,670,263 bushels compared with the report of the 1900 census, when the corn crop was 342,464,737, in the same States.

Kentucky, with an average acre yield of 30.4 bushels, shows an increased yield since 1900 of 8.1 bushels per acre, and ranks well above the average in acre yields for the United States. The corn crop in Kentucky in 1912 was 109,440,000 bushels, worth $60,192,000, which is more than double the price paid for the 1899 crop, which brought $29,423,996, an increase in value of $30,768,004.

TROTTER HORSE NEWS.

The stable of trotters and pacers owned by James R. Magowan, and under the guidance of Richard Curtis, has been moved to the stable at the Montgomery County Fair Grounds, where the horses will be worked this season, and where the two stallions, J. Malcolm Forbes and Mainleaf, will be in the stud. In the string this year there are a number of young ones of much promise and speed and the stable will do some campaigning late in the fall.

The track at the Montgomery County Fair Grounds has been thoroughly worked with track machine and is in fine shape, and as soon as the weather settles active work will be begun by the trainers on their horses. The outlook is that at least fifty colts and aged stuff will be worked at the local track this year.

That the Peter Montgomery colts possess wonderful speed and are good individuals is evidenced by the following letter recently received by Bean Brothers from H. C. Moody, of Lexington, Ky., the widely known colt trainer, who has some of these colts in his barn. The letter says: "Gentlemen: Replying to your inquiry concerning the yearling filly by Peter Montgomery I beg to say that she is not only one of the best gaited and best headed fillies I ever trained, but she has a wonderful burst of speed and as an individual she is second to none. I am very much pleased with her and without accident she will be a record performer for her sire. Yours truly, H. C. Moody." Peter Montgomery has six colts, now yearlings; they are without an exception extra good looking and natural trotters, with perfect dispositions, fearless and game, the kind that trainers are after. Peter Montgomery will make the season in this county at $10 cash at time of service. Read his advertisement on another page.

Ernest Gillaspie, of Montgomery county, has a good-looking brown filly by Tregantle in the stable of Charles Bean. The filly is two years old, good size, with plenty of action and splendidly gaited and looks like a trotter for sure. She is a long, rangy colt, and when straightened out can step some through the stretches.—Blue Grass Journal.

WATCH YOURSELF GO BY.

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by;
Think of yourself as "he" instead of "I."
Note closely, as in other men you note,
The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat.

Pick flaws, find fault, forget the man is you;
Comfort yourself, and look yourself in the eye—
Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as though
You looked on one whose aims you did not know.
Let undigested contempt surge through
You when
You see you shirk, oh, commonest of men!
Despite your cowardice, condemn what'er
You note of falsehood in you anywhere.
Defend not one defect that shames your eye—
Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

And then, with eyes unveiled to what
You loathe—
To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe—
Back to your self-walled tenements you'll go
With tolerance for all who dwell below.
The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink,
Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link—
When you, with "he" as substitute for "I,"
Have stood and watched yourself go by.
—C. E. WITTY.
